assault that have been exposed under the hashtag #MeToo. In the months since so many powerful and wealthy men, from Hollywood moguls to politicians to Weinstein-type film and media moguls, have been exposed for their abuse and harassment of women, one question has gradually emerged: What have we accomplished? Most people will answer that question in some form of the following: Some women have gotten to file a police report and sue their abusers. We've seen hundreds of alleged abusers lose their jobs. Those who have escaped justice and/or escaped to other countries have been the subject of international media attention, as have those who have made bold statements about their rampant misbehavior. Some of them have now been swept from power. Some women have gotten places of higher education funded by their abusers and even had to pay tens of thousands of dollars to get a degree.
