LongeFans is a super group of independent game developers working as a team. We're big fans of adventure and story games, and love to create such titles. During the last few years, we worked together to create a whole series of games, such as Dragon Days (a game about dragons), The Walking Dead Game (a story game where you make your own decisions), V-Files (a RPG/Visual Novel) and some others. We appreciate your time and kindness as we're getting close to a Full Length Release. We love to see your feedback! So, do not hesitate to share any of your thoughts or any feedback you might have with us. We are hiring! As the website says: LongeFans is a small independent team of four people (me, a musician, a graphic designer and a producer) based in Croatia. We create games for fun and love to develop them with passion. Some of the games we've been developing are: The Walking Dead game (Possible game), V-Files (A sequel of Heart Of Darkness, in which you make your own decisions), Dragon Days (A game about dragons) and two others. We are planning to develop more games, but with our limited resources we have to prioritize. We love to create games with a plot, with intriguing characters and with good graphics. We need a Designers, QA and Developers. If you are interested, you can find some contact information on the contact page. We are looking for both, people that have experience and people with no experience, because both are important to us. Project: TMPOLLO THE LIVING BOOK 2 Hey guys, it's been a while since I made my last post for you. As you can see my last post was almost a year ago and I have not posted any news since then. It's a really bad habit of mine and you should not believe anything I say until you see it with your own eyes. But, since I've started working on a new project, I think it's about time I go talk about it. Currently I am in the process of developing a new project that has been given the green light, and the development is going as planned. The project is going to be on Unreal Engine 4 and it will be on PC. The title of my project is "TMPOLLO THE LIVING BOOK 2". I had a lot of fun with the first game and I'm hoping d41b202975

What's new in Super Bearded Dragons:

(Pogona vitticeps), grow to 4-5 Feet and weigh 50-100 lbs. Their average age at attack is 5-7, but some attack at 3 years old. The main differences between various pochona breeds and other breeds are their coloration and size. Bearded dragons are considered temperamental. They are available in about 40 colors and a few sizes depending on the color. Their enemies include the likes of S-curve (Teeti), variants of a natural coastal/ oceanic environment, (e.g., TT-Curve), Lizards, Snakes, and many other venomous reptiles. These dragons are also hunted by many farms for their skin and scales. Owner Misconceptions: Apparently, people continue to believe in people that their bearded dragon is from their area or area of origin. However, many people bought/ bought/ imported their bearded dragons from Australia and elsewhere. In fact, no bearded dragon is truly from the Aussie and even the original stock of wild-bred animals were bought from other countries. Yet, as they are popular pets, they now proliferate from coast to coast. Authoritative Resource: Origins of the Pogona breed! While no bearded dragon experts were found on this site to answer our queries, we find the following website to be wise on the subject This is for all new ones out there: Bearded Dragons do not go into a stage of metamorphosis, they do not hibernate, and are NOT related to a type of snake. They are lizards as Flat-bodied scaly creatures and are living in non arid areas, not deserts. They may be found in dusty areas and sand, however, they are not natives to deserts and do not hibernate! They don't lay eggs or have anal pouches. They can be found all around the world in Australia, Africa, Asia (including Israel, Jordan, the US) and in North America. What is the Bearded Dragon? Bearded Dragons are lizards, just like you. While they are known as a dragon due to their egg-shaped scales on their backs (no bat wings or wings), they are just a lizard just like you.
