Following on from Girl with the Dragon Tattoo she has now been in two more movies, the latest being Noah, in which she plays a 10 year-old Noah, who one day finds his father after years searching for him. The blockbuster sci-fi film, with a Hollywood cast including Morgan Freeman, Anthony Hopkins, Emma Watson and John Cusack, was one of the most highly anticipated movies of the year. The critics even agree that her performance is one of the best of this year's acting crop. At present, it appears that Johansson will be spending a good deal of time in her "house" to prepare for the release of her next movie, In the Land of Blood and Honey, in which she stars alongside fellow American actors Daniel Craig and Ron Perlman. Frist Nations Derby She might be one of the most successful actresses on the planet but Johansson is not one to rest on her laurels, and after appearing in a range of films this year, the 31 year-old beauty is now looking to move to the next level. According to her, she will be making her acting debut on a "big, big movie" in the coming months. "I think I'll be starting a new adventure in an acting career, in a couple of months," Johansson is quoted as saving. "I have a movie that I think is going to be one of the top movies to come out. I don't know if people know that but we're doing a film with Daniel [Craig]. It's a big, big movie and it's a lot of fun and I'm very excited about it. It's going to be fun to be around that."
