But you didn't. You picked up your damn axe. You were like, 'You guys are going to get us, aren't you?' You wanted to see who you were, and if you weren't someone who would fight for your life, you'd walk away. "You weren't a coward; you were an asshole. It's actually quite heartwarming to know that the asshole in the story that I've been talking about for the past five years was me. “The series has been going on for five years, so when the final episode is finally out, you’re going to get to read a letter from me. The letter is going to be like...” He pauses and just sort of looks at me, in a way which makes me think he’s trying to figure out if he wants to say “I’m a piece of shit” or “I’m a hero.” He takes a deep breath, and says “I think I wrote in the letter that I was feeling like I could’ve done more to save Clara. But I also c6a93da74d
