Tbh, I found nothing wrong with either of those two. If you want to listen to one of them, you can find one of the links below. As for the other one, I have no idea why your iTunes is telling you there is something wrong with it. I've never experienced anything like this and I don't think many people do. I tried to tag in a couple of events so you can see that there is at least one in your city. If you want more, it's easy to find via Google or Yahoo. It's not surprising that you've not found any G2G or G2G2G. I don't want to call out any specific city but I've found that you can't really count on G2G in a consistent manner. I've had several attempts where my posts ended up in Edmonton, Ottawa, London and Toronto. If I had a small house post, then it's not surprising it would end up in New York. I checked the WordPress website and it seems some new features have been introduced with the latest updates. It would appear those updates may be causing problems with the site but that's just a hunch on my part. I haven't seen anything posted related to the problem and I haven't come across it when searching. Any way to fix it? Are you having the same issues? I'm experiencing the same sort of problems with my posts. On one occasion, I found my post in San Jose. I also found my posts in Vietnam, Hungary, the Ukraine, Japan, United Kingdom, Australia, China, Denmark, United States and Canada. I recommend you start a new thread when you run into problems again. Then I can take a look at it. You may find your issue fixed this time because you're being very consistent. I think my last posts were to you guys because you both posted about the same issues. I was waiting for you to reply. I am most definitely and 100% experience this today. I just tried posting again and It hasn't posted yet. It worked before and then it stopped. I am experiencing the same issues as you. I just tried to post today and it didn't post and I have over a dozen posts to different cities listed on my homepage at the present time. I too have an iPad but it is not a new one. The forum software used to work fine. If the above doesn't work, try the following: Change the url to <http://www.g2g.fm/> Login to your account Click on the Posts link on your home page, and then use the flag icon to add your post. If the above doesn't work, try the following: Change the url to <http://www.g2g.fm/> Login to your account Click on the Posts link on your home page, and then use the flag icon to add your post. Are you having same issues as I am? If so, please post a new thread in forum about it. I'm surprised you didn't see any attempt to reply to the first post. I guess you don't really want any help. 5ec8ef588b
