Test JavaScript, CSS, HTML, or CoffeeScript online with the JSFiddle code editor. If you have comments or design suggestions, email @jsfiddle. Don't forget to use the button An order came in for the development of an online store. The client decided to use a content management system (CMS). He chose Bitrix. At the moment there is a working site, which can already be used. On the first page of the project needed to implement the "Goods" section. To create product categories, we use the functionality of Bitrix: To create a category, there is a function "Add Category". dd2bc28256
